Trinity Lutheran Church records (in Soulard) say that when married, he was "of" Jimenez, Fananlipas (Tamaulipas), Mexico
It also gives his birthdate as 12-29-1884, age 22

Marriage application states that he is of 3642 Hickory and Hertha of 2302 Menard St.

Died of bronchopneumonia that was contracted while working on a bridge in Mexico. Trinity Church Records give mourners as: widow, 2 children, parents-in-law. Died in San Ysidro, CA (California death certificate). Buried Concordia Cemetery, St. Louis.

Met Hertha at the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis, St. Louis County, MO. He first 'went with' Hertha's sister Minnie while his brother Manuel Jr. 'went with' Hertha. Sometime later they 'switched' and married. (per Virginia Doria and confirmed by other family members' stories.)

Shares a stone with brother Antone

No death certificate for Manuel. He must have been born and died before the 1910 census (26 April). Hattie, on census, is listed as the mother of 4, with 2 living. There is time for him to have been born premature and died between Glorita and Joseph as well as immediately after Joseph, before Ethel. Depending on gestation time, there is also time for him to have been born/died after Ethel or after Louis Manuel. However, that only works if he was born in Mexico and I don't know that they would bury him in St. Louis while Ethel is buried in Mexico; it would also add a pre-1910 child who died that we don't have a name for. Missouri required death certificates starting in 1910 so it is most likely he was born and died before this began and before the 1910 census. So my guess is that most of this likely took place in 1909, possibly into early 1910.

Imitation Policeman Scare Holdup Man

Such an effective imitation of a squad of policemen approaching on the run was given yesterday by Mrs. Louis Schulze, 2302 Menard street, that a highwayman holding up her husband in his store at the same address, fled in terror.

Mrs. Schulze, who was in the rear, saw the holdup man, called loudly for the police, and then beat rapidly on the floor with a carpet beater.

The robber mistook the noise for the footsteps of policemen, as it was intended he should, turned and ran without the loot.

Surname sometimes Grieve or Griewee or Greve or Grive

Owned a store at 2302 Menard Street in St. Louis City, MO (They also owned 2304 Menard). When she and Louis died, the store went to their two daughters, who ran it for awhile, then sold it. Louis' second wife Emma lived there still when she died in 1950. The building is no longer standing, it burned down some time ago. The Schulze family lived on the second and third floors and the other building.

b) POSSIBILITIES:

There is a Luther Reeves listed in the Oklahoma, County Marriages Book, 1890-1995. No 2109.

"To any Person Authorized by Law to Solemnize Marriage -- GREETING:

Signed JM. Hammons, a minister of the gospel.

My credentials are recorded in the office of the Clerk of the United States Court in the Indian Territory, Son(?) Judicial Division, Book 6 Page 36.

NOTE: it is possible, then, if Luther was truly from the Oklahoma Indian Territory, that he could have married before moving East. This Luther is at the right age, as 18 in 1907, after his birthday in January 1890, would actually be right on the money age-wise.

Louis Schulze, proprietor of a dry goods store at 2302 Menard street, was waiting on a customer in the front of his store at 2 p.m. when he saw a man sneak in at the back door and make for the cash drawer. Schulze picked up an ink bottle and started toward him. The man ran out and slammed the door. Schulze hurled the ink bottle through the glass panel. It struck the man in the back and broke, spattering him with ink. He escaped. During the excitement the customer left and Schulze missed a sale.
