Note: ^{a)} According to the 1900 census, was born July of 1896.
This is very strange, Grandma always said Dec 22, 1890; but you would think that the 1900 census would be more accurate since her birth would have been more recent at that time.
However, I will not just change it yet until I find out for sure. I guess it is possible that someone somewhere could have mistaken the 6 of 1896 for a 0. But that does not explain December vs January. We will have to see another census.
