Marriage application states that he is of 3642 Hickory and Hertha of 2302 Menard St.

Died of bronchopneumonia that was contracted while working on a bridge in Mexico. Trinity Church Records give mourners as: widow, 2 children, parents-in-law. Died in San Ysidro, CA (California death certificate). Buried Concordia Cemetery, St. Louis.

Met Hertha at the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis, St. Louis County, MO. He first 'went with' Hertha's

Imitation Policeman Scare Holdup Man

Such an effective imitation of a squad of policemen approaching on the run was given yesterday by Mrs. Louis Schulze, 2302 Menard street, that a highwayman holding up her husband in his store at the same address, fled in terror.

Mrs. Schulze, who was in the rear, saw the holdup man, called loudly for the police, and then beat rapidly on the floor with a carpet beater.

The robber mistook the noise for the footsteps of policemen, as it was intended he should, turned and ran without the loot.

b) Or 1856?

Surname sometimes Grieve or Griewee or Greve or Grive

Owned a store at 2302 Menard Street in St. Louis City, MO (They also owned 2304 Menard). When she and Louis died, the store went to their two daughters, who ran it for awhile, then sold it. Louis' second wife Emma lived there still when she died in 1950. The building is no longer standing, it burned down some time ago. The Schulze family lived on the second and third floors and the other building.

Louis Schulze, proprietor of a dry goods store at 2302 Menard street, was waiting on a customer in the front of his store at 2 p.m. when he saw a man sneak in at the back door and make for the cash drawer. Schulze picked up an ink bottle and started toward him. The man ran out and slammed the door. Schulze hurled the ink bottle through the glass panel. It struck the man in the back and broke, spattering him with ink. He escaped. During the excitement the customer left and Schulze missed a sale.
