Note: a) 1900 Census gives parents as father born in Germany, mother in TN.

Would have had a brother George W., and one named Jess J., according to 1910 Census. Daughter Nellie was living with George W. Joy and is listed as niece, daughter Nettie is living with Jess J. Joy listed as niece. I wonder if Sarah died before 1910? The birthplaces of both men are TN and father TN and mother TN.

The Frank & Viney (VonBurg) Tharp Tree on Ancestry.com states that she died "aft 1898" and was born 26 Sep 1864 in Murfreesboro, TN.

Note: <sup>a)</sup> According to the 1900 census, was born July of 1896.
This is very strange, Grandma always said Dec 22, 1890; but you would think that the 1900 census would be more accurate since her birth would have been more recent at that time.
However, I will not just change it yet until I find out for sure. I guess it is possible that someone somewhere could have mistaken the 6 of 1896 for a 0. But that does not explain December vs January. We will have to see another census.

(Obviously, this was more like 1881)
I guess when he got to the states he couldn't quite remember how old he was because his first US census is way off, giving birthdate as 1842, when the other three in Canada have been for 1851, 1850, and 1849

Hello Valerie
Here is what I found in the 1900 Obion Co. Tenn census on your family.

The only thing is the birthplace of LA - but you know....

The following is from Vivian Rhodes, vrhodes@telus.net
1- I have a George T. McManus born in Canada abt 1851 in Lanark
Ontario. Have not been able to find him I know that his brother
